WOWS 2ND MUSIC FESTIVAL

'We hold tomorrow in our hands'

Winstanley, Orrell, Worsley Mesnes Schools—With Others We Succeed

On Tuesday 1st March the 2nd WOWS Music Festival took place at Robin Park Wigan. There were 400 children from across the 13 WOWS Schools who performed and 800 parents, family members and special guests who listened to 15 outstanding musical pieces including samba drums, a brass ensemble and massed choir singing. It was quite literally a moving and magical event with performances of the highest quality throughout the evening. This, the 2nd WOWS music festival, was a reflection of the musical life within and across our learning community.

Over many weeks, staff and pupils have worked together visiting each others schools, collaborating with and supporting each other.

Special thanks to Ms Tennant, Mrs Smyth and Mrs Baxter for preparing the children to perform so well and many congratulations to the children who performed so well on the night. They were a real credit to their family, the school and themselves.

Well done everyone!

Sam Addison, Stephanie Butcher, James Derbyshire, Molly Elliott, Lizzy Gaskell, Matthew Heyes, Emily Ralph, Freddie Stephenson, Ben Webster, Jamie Arkwright, Taylor Charnock, Ryan Eden, Alex Hamer, Carrie Jennings, Daniel Oakes, Ella Singleton, Francesca Tirebuck, Daniel White, Jack Benson, India Corlett-Moore, Oliver Edwards, Harry Gaskell, Ellie Heyes, Abbie Jones, Abigail Preece, Ella Stephenson, Tabitha Ward and Stephanie Memmott.

Burglary

It has been brought to our attention that a parent's house was burgled whilst collecting their child from school at 3.30 pm on Monday. A number of items were stolen including jewellery and car keys. Please be vigilant.

Save Drumcroon!!

Drumcroon Gallery is facing the real possibility of closure. Wigan Council is considering withdrawing its subsidy from the only public gallery in Wigan as it is forced to axe millions from its budget. Please spare a couple of minutes to sign the petition sheets which are available from the school office.
