Open Day at Junior Royal Northern College of Music 6th February

I should like to draw your attention to the above open day which is taking place on Saturday February 6th 2010 at the Junior Department of the Royal Northern College of Music on Oxford Road Manchester from 10.30am – 5 pm.

The Junior department of the Royal Northern College is keen to attract musically talented school aged pupils, both those who have already had formal lessons on a musical instrument or those who show excellent potential. The college is also keen to attract pupils from a wide range of backgrounds and is keen to ensure that finance does not prevent anyone who is capable from attending.

The open day is designed to give parents and pupils an opportunity to find out more about the college and its provision and during the day there will be a tour of the building and opportunity to talk to staff and students as well as to hear a concert given by some of the current students, some of whom are from Wigan schools.

If you are interested in attending the college is registering participants via their email address as juniors@rncm.ac.uk or by telephoning 0161 907 5264.
